

Steering Committee

ROLE

- To guide the execution of the BRAVO and its projects.
- Create, manage and guide the implementation of BRAVO activities detailed in the BRAVO RMC document.
- Resolve conflicts that may arise within the consortium.

The steering committee will take decisions on a consensus basis and/or majority basis as required.

COMPOSITION

The steering committee may consist of representatives of the following sectors:

1. Alumina processing industry
2. Academia and research
3. Construction sector (including Cement etc.)
4. Downstream processors (Iron, Steel, Smelters etc.)
5. Pan European/international representative organisation
6. Al-Source Leader
7. Al-Ore Leader
8. Al-Build Leader
9. Al-Chain Leader
10. Al-Aware Leader

Bravo Steering Committee 2015:

- University of Limerick – Dr. Lisa O’Donoghue
- Swera Mefos - John Bustnes
- Rio Tinto - Amiel Boullemant
- International Aluminium Institute- Katy Tsesmiles
- Sintef - Kare Helge karstensen
- Rusal- Martin Fennel
- Ceinmat - Angel Lopez Buendia
- Geonardo - Omer Ceylan
- ENEA - Claudia Brunori
- Alteo - Eric Duchenne

Advisory Roles:

- Euromines- Corina Hebestreit (experience with the HLSG, EIP and SIP strategies)
- NTUA - Anthimos Xenidis (experience with BR management and links to other BR RMCs)